Mastercard Foundation Alumni Network Committee

Do you get excited by the idea of starting something new, with lasting impact?

Do you believe in the power of networks and young people to make a difference in your community and country?

Can you lead and support a team to tackle challenges and inspire people around you?

The Mastercard Foundation Alumni Network is an ambitious group of young people creating youth-led communities across Ghana, Rwanda and Uganda bound together by shared values of service and giving back, and a shared goal to tackle youth unemployment in Africa. We are looking to select an alumni leadership committee to drive the vision and activities of these alumni chapters. These committees facilitate the network to drive social change, connecting people and opportunity.

As a voluntary committee member, you will receive a stipend, professional development opportunities, and assistance with community give-back projects. There will be compensation for any out-of-pocket expenses from participating in the committee, like travel and food. Details of this to be discussed during the on boarding into the role.

You will be asked to submit a resume, answer 3 questions and provide 2 referees to complete your application. You can answer the 3 questions either in writing by completing the text boxes when prompted, or by recording a video of you answering them and providing us with a link. When you answer these questions, please refer to the skills and deliverables in the role description, and include examples of where you have demonstrated these in the past. The video cannot be loaded to this portal, so please ensure this video is recorded on a private YouTube channel (or similar) and the link copied in to the portal. Please do not password protect the link, or provide log in details – the video should be available to watch by sending us the link.

Indicate method you would like to use to proceed with the application.
